Adjournment of State Encampment - Elec-tion and Installation of Officers—Unmp Fire Last Evening.

Ohio division, Sons of Veterans of America held the final ression of the annual er camp ment in G. A. R. hall this morning, adjourning for one year. At the session yesterday afternoon the time was occupied with the an-Adjutant and Quartermaster. The report of the Adjutant showed that during the year teen camps had been organised in the State. These new camps average a membership of 25, bringing the total membership in the State up to about 1.500.

The matter of consolidation with the other branch of Sons of Veterans, of which there are seven or eight Camps in this State. against 48 of the regular Order, was not closed up as expected and is continued another year. The S. of V. of the U. S. A. are willing to make all reasonable concess ons to bring about unity and harmony in the common cause, but the recalcitrant branch wants the earth apparently. It is only a question of time, however. The regular Order was reported in a flourishing condition and be-coming popular with the class of young men entitled to membership.

The following named officers of the Division were elected at the afternoon session and installed in the evening:

Division Commander, George A. Rosiga, of Defiance.

Division Lieutenant Commander, H. C. Frazee, of Cleveland. Vice Lieutenant Commander, W. D. A.

O'Brien, of Springfield. Chaplain, Rev. N. H. Badger, of Xenia. Division Council, E. H. Gilkey and E. R.

Vincent, Columbus; Ira Morrison, Akron. Delegate at Large to National Encampment at Detroit, E. R. Vincent; alternate, G. W. Sprague.

Commander Myers, retiring, conducted the installation ceremonies last evening wishing ing for the new corps success and for the Division, through their efforts, continued prosperity and growth. By special dispensation the local camp held a meeting in the evening for muster of a recruit, the unwritten work being exemplified by some of the visitors very impressively. About fifty comrades of Mitchell Post No. 45. G. A. R., were present on invitation and pleased spectators of these proceedings. In-vitations were accepted for Z. Barney Phillips Camp to participate with the G. A. R. in religious services in the hall Sunday afternoon May 24 and in Memorial Day observances Saturday, May 30. The G. A. R. Committee of the Camp was designated to co-operate with the Post in making arangements. Atter the regular business and installation of Division efficers tables were brought in and quickly spread with materials for a substantial collation to which the entire company sat down, the Sons of Veterans at one table and the Vets, at the other. At the proper time Captain O'Brien rapped to order for the camp fire and called out Col. W. J. White, who pronounced a eulogy upon Z Barney Phillips, for whom the local camp was named. The retiring Commander of Ohio Division, Col. Myers, next made a few remarks and was followed by Bro. E. R. Vin cent, of Columbus, whose patriotic remarks were received with bearty applause. Col. J. E. Stewart and Col. David King, of the G. A. R., responded briefly to calls and Capt. W. D. A. O'Brien recited in his inimitable manuer several selection-war and humorous poetry. The speaking was interspersed with singing of patriotic songs, 1-d by Comrade A. M. Burbank, in the G. A. R. committee for the refreshments furnished by them and to Pro'essor Burbank, for vocal music, Comrades J. W. R. Cline and - Dodson for martial music during the ceremony of initiation. Commander Ensign spoke in a complementary manner of Captain O'Brien and Camp 37 as accurate and effective workers. Among those present was Ed. W. Simpson which all joined. Before adjournment at 11:30 p. m. Camp No. 37 passed resolutions of thanks to the Women's Relief Corps and Chief Fire Engineer of the city, who has the distinction, it is believed, of being the only man in Ohio who is a member of the three societies of G. A. R., Sons of Veterans and Ex-Prisoners of War.

At this morning's session the Division voted on place for next meeting, applications being presented from Salem, Cleveland and Columbus. Neither place received a majority of votes and the location of the next encampment was left to the Commander. After passing resolutions of thanks to Z. Barney Phillips Camp and officers, the G. A. R. and retiring officers, reading and approving the minutes, the Division adjourned finally.

Camp No. 37 held a special at-noon today to initiate a gentleman from Cincinnati, who proposes to organize a camp in that city.

The Station House

The calm and peacetul neighborhood popul larly known as "the hill" was convulsed merriment and fun all yesterday afternoon and evening. The men indulged in "the flowing bowl," the women engaged in a few neighborly rounds of hair-pulling and eye-gouging, while even the little children chipped in to swell the hilarity of the occasion. Along in the evening the fun grew s buisterous that Officers Nicklas and Ward interfered and withdrew Thomas Rose, Anna Harris and Belle Mason from the happy community. Scarcely had the patrol wagon returned to its quarters after taking them to the station house when it was summoned again to the famous Box 50, this time for the benefit of Samuel Ryan and Mat Yarrow. Before the night was over it made another trip t. the same place after Michael Connors. Mike was dru k and disorderly and, it is said, in his was dru k and disorderly and, it is said, in his state of ex seme elation attempted to steel a key of beer. This is scarcely considered an offense in that neighborhood, but Ward and Nicklas fearing leat he might carry off a freight train, considered it best to put him in tale keeping. The general committee of arrangements for the Republican State Convention met in Room No. 6, Arcade building, last evening. O. S. Kelly from the building committee exhibited plans for the wigwam and presented a report recommending the erection on Market square, subject to permission of the City Council, which was voted at their session last night, of a building according to these plans and fully described in this paper last evening, and the report was adopted. Thereupon a resolution was - passed instructing the building committee to proceed with the work of construction immediately. Mr. Kelly stated they would make the contracts for lumber etc. today and for work of construction as soon as possible; within a day or two. Mr. Miles from committee on decorations, suggested that the building should be completed ready for his committee to go to work upon it by the first of June. Mr. Miles stated further, as to senting, that one thousand chairs could be had here and that he would arrange while in Cincinnati to contract for decorations and for the additional chairs required, which he thought could be rented. Opening of the Yellow Springs House.

The opening of the Yellow Springs House, last night, was large-ly attended by people from Springfield, Dayton and other neighboring cities Those who went from here started about 9 o'clock. Among their number were Messrs. A. O. Huffman, H. S. Cory, Robert Richter, Chase Stewart, B. McGrew, H. S. Hauk, J. M. Donnell, A. M. Crothers, E. G. Barrett, Will Rodgers, A. W. Butt, Charles Driscol, E. G. Gillett, Ralph Bartholomew, Charles Cath-cart, George Garber, Misses Anna and Lou Baldwin, Miss Reed, Anna Paige, Alice and Fan Foley and Miss Dickson. The Dayton people considerably outnumbered those from Springfield, some thirty or torty being present. Early in the evening the guests sat down to as elegant a supper as a person can hope to meet with in this "vale of tears." If last night's banquet is a fair sample of the manner in which Billy Grove intends to feed his guests we fear his hotel will be a losing speculation. After supper the company er joyed a dance in the spacious halts of the hotel until 2 a. m., when
